

Q. Who prepared the deed?

A. Asa Stottlemeyer.

Q. When you decided to sell to Mr. Wolfe, did you or not have a deed prepared?

A. Yes.

Q. I show you here a paper, will you please state what this is?

A. It is the deed which I had fixed up to sell the place to Mr. Wolfe.

Q. By whom was this deed prepared?

A. By Asa Stottlemeyer.

DEED OFFERED AS PETITIONER'S EXHIBIT B.

Q. Who was present when the signatures were put on this deed?

A. Me, my daughter and Mr. Stottlemeyer.

Q. Did Mr. Stottlemeyer see you and Evelyn sign your names to the deed?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he take your acknowledgment to it and sign his own name and add his seal?

A. That is right.

Q. Did he or not mention anything regarding Evelyn's age?

A. He didn't say a word and neither did I. He just went ahead and wrote it out.

Q. How long has Mr. Stottlemeyer known Evelyn?

A. I don't know.

Q. Does she or not look like a girl of 21?

A. No.

Q. What was your purpose in selling this property to Mr. Wolfe?

A. To pay on the other place.

Q. I show you here a paper. Will you please state what this is?

A. This is a deed to my husband for the property which he bought from the other heirs of his mother.

Q. I notice that this deed which we offer in evidence as Petitioner's Exhibit C is signed by Harvey Williard and Leslie Kuhn. Will you please state who these people are?

A. Harvey Williard is my husband's brother and Leslie Kuhn is his half-brother.

Q. How many children did your husband's mother have?

A. Just the three, Harvey, Leslie and my husband.

Q. How much did your husband agree to pay for this property?

A. $1500.00.